Hi, Mom, Jia Ling's maiden film, became an immediate hit after it was released during the Spring Festival of 2021.

The film is based on the life experience of Jia, whose mother passed away tragically when Jia was young. Deeply saddened by her mother's accidental death, Jia finds herself transported back to 1981. She meets her mother and attempts to improve her fate using ideas from the future, but things always turn out against her wishes and her plans repeatedly go wrong.

The film is so touching that it has brought so many moviegoers to tears. In fact, quite a lot of people even see the film repeatedly.

Though Jia considers it as a tribute to her mother, many more are inspired to think twice about our attitude to our parents. Our parents are always responsible to raise us, putting all their heart into taking care of us, expecting us to be successful in our study as well as in our life. However, we often reward them with repeated disappointments. Quite often we think we love and respect our parents, but have we really put our love into practical deeds? We should carry out our love to our parents before it is too late.
